

Farm Succession & Estate Planning Course

The University of Idaho Extension is offering a 4-week course for any operation that will undergo a change of leadership from one generation to another within the next few years. Topics in this course will include:

- Starting the Conversation
- Succession Planning – Passing the farm to the next generation.
- Retirement Planning – How can we pay for retirement?
- Estate Planning Tools – Trusts, Wills, Probate, Estate Taxes, Gifting, Business Structure, and many others.
- Guest Speakers: Accountant, Attorney, Insurance/Financial Planner

Location & Time:

Bonneville County Extension Office – 2925 Rollandet, Idaho Falls

Dates: February 28, March 7, 14, 21, 2013 Time: 10:00 – 3:00

Cost: $100 per operation (includes lunch and class materials)

Registration is required by February 25, 2013. Please call the Teton County Extension Office (208) 354-2961.

